

TravelGo is a platform dedicated to helping travelers in the Philippines find trustworthy, accredited travel agencies. It addresses the growing issue of scams and unreliable services by offering verified listings, real customer reviews, and helpful travel resources. By empowering travelers with information, TravelGo promotes safe, secure, and enjoyable journeys.

Completed Tasks:

- Conducted market research on travel scams in the Philippines.
- Outlined the main features of the TravelGo website.
- Drafted the initial project proposal document.
- Planned the website's content and review system.
